Dear Matt:

I wanted to take a moment and commend the work that NexGen Consultants has done for us. Over the past year we have been very impressed with the professionalism and attention to detail demonstrated. NexGen worked with us to create a Salesforce environment specific to our needs as a specialized aviation services company. They successfully implemented the Salesforce Sales Cloud, including the setup of marketing capabilities and the migration of ACT data.

In addition, NexGen successfully set up the integration of Quickbooks with Salesforce. This is very important because it allows us to view invoice data within the Salesforce environment.

Finally, NexGen provided our team with excellent training by conducting classes for users as well as Report/Dashboard and System Administration training. This was very helpful and has gotten us up and running in an efficient manner.

We have been very pleased with the work done by NexGen Consultants and want to recommend your work as a Salesforce Partner. Thank you and we look forward to working with you again in the future.

Sincerely,
