To Whom It May Concern,

I am happy to recommend NexGen Consultants as a premier Salesforce.com implementation and adoption partner. NexGen was crucial in helping us understand and adopt functionality that our internal team did not have the time or experience to execute.

We were very fortunate to work with Debbie Fanning on our project. Her professionalism and knowledge of Salesforce allowed for a seamless execution of our goals. She met all project deadlines and the quick response times from NexGen with configuration requests and questions were commendable.

NexGen migrated our data into Salesforce from Dynamics. In addition, we implemented workflows, telecom, Chatter and email marketing.

Truly living up to your reputation of adoption leaders, many training hours for users and admins were included in the scope of the project leaving us with a feeling of independence and confidence.

We plan to continue to build on our instance of Salesforce, and are glad to have found a partner in NexGen.

Sincerely,
